Clinical Consultant Program

Neotech is looking for clinical expertise in the fields of Neonatal/NICU, Pediatrics, Respiratory (Neonatal & Pediatrics), Labor and Delivery, Mother Baby, Lactation, and Home Health Care.

Clinical Council

Join our network of clinical experts to provide valuable feedback on product development, hospital needs, treatment standards, and more.

Our Clinical Council (formerly SOS group) is the first level of clinical consultation at Neotech. It requires minimal commitment and you can participate while working around your full-time schedule. Most activities are done online.

Clinical Educator

Your experience with our products speaks volumes to other clinicians, which is why we want you representing Neotech. Neotech is looking for product loyalist and super users to serve as clinical educators. Facilitate hospital in-service requests or virtual sessions to train fellow clinicians on the proper, effective use of Neotech products.

You can also represent Neotech at conference exhibits. Interact with attendees and speak with them on a clinical level about the use of our products. Our program is designed with your full-time position in mind. This is a great way to get away from the unit and supplement your income.

Clinical Advisory Board

The advisory team is composed of clinicians who are leaders in their field(s) of expertise. Neotech is in need of experienced clinical leaders to advise on a variety of topics, including new product ideas, competitive products, instructions for use, clinical insights, and more. This position is ideal for clinicians with limited time or prior commitments.
